

NEW JERSEY CHILD ASSAULT PREVENTION (NJ CAP) is looking for Facilitators to implement the CAP Program in local school districts

NJ CAP is a program of the Department of Children and Families and is located at the Camden County College in Blackwood, NJ. We have County CAP Projects in all 21 counties in New Jersey.

By becoming a CAP Facilitator:

- You could be presenting workshops which teach empowerment strategies to deal with potentially dangerous situations to children in schools in your county.
- You could participate in an international prevention education program which has been recognized as “the most comprehensive prevention program in the country today.”
- You could receive intensive and ongoing training which will prepare you to present the workshops in various curricula, handle concerns, and advocate for children.
- You could receive certification as a Prevention Education Facilitator in the CAP Program.
- You could have a flexible schedule of part-time work during school hours which truly makes a difference in keeping children “SAFE, STRONG, and FREE.”
- You could be part of a team of committed, experienced, and supportive people who are CAP Facilitators.

IF YOU ARE:

- 18 years of age or older
- Able to attend a four day training
- Willing to participate in a pre and post training interviews
- Agreeable to background check
- Punctual and dedicated
- Have transportation

You can join the CAP team.
