NEW JERSEY CHILD ASSAULT PREVENTION

ERIN’S LAW
State Required in Schools

School districts must incorporate age-appropriate sexual abuse prevention and awareness education into state student learning standards in grades Pre-k through 12 as well as provide instructional training for teaching staff.

NJCAP offers education for students, school personnel, parents and guardians pertaining to the warning signs of child sexual abuse, needed assistance, referral or resource information to support sexually abused children and their families.

NJCAP 2019

80,000 Students trained
35,000 Attended Review Time
9,000 Problems Solved

Grant Applications Available online

www.NJCAp.org